

FALL 2017 SYMPOSIUM

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
JULIAN OLDEN

Professor
School of Aquatic and Fishery Sciences
University of Washington

Varsity Hall Union South
1308 Dayton Street

Julian Olden's visit is made possible through support from Anthropology, Community & Environmental Sociology, Civil & Environmental Engineering, Center for Limnology, Entomology, Forest & Wildlife Ecology, Geography, the UW-Madison Arboretum and:

NELSON INSTITUTE FOR Environmental Studies
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

University Lectures UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

ecology.wisc.edu/symposium

Wednesday

OCTOBER 11

- 3:00 PM KEYNOTE
"New vision,
new life, new hope,
for dammed rivers"
JULIAN OLDEN
- 4:00 PM RECEPTION

Thursday

OCTOBER 12

- 1:00 PM WELCOME
- 1:10 PM BEN ZUCKERBERG
Forest & Wildlife Ecology
- 1:35 PM JOHN ORROCK
Integrative Biology
- 2:00 PM JACK WILLIAMS
Geography, Nelson Institute
- 2:25 PM TONY GOLDBERG
Pathobiological Sciences
- 2:45 PM COFFEE BREAK
- 3:00 PM KEYNOTE
"Confronting persistent myths and enduring realities of invasive species"
JULIAN OLDEN
- 4:00 PM RECEPTION

twitter.com/wiscecology

facebook.com/wisconsin ecology